

The Field House

at the Enumclaw Expo Center

Our historic Field House is formal enough for your fairytale wedding or the finest black tie banquet, yet rustic enough for a jeans and boots casual affair.

This open space features wood flooring, rustic wood walls, original exposed wood beam ceiling, a large stage, and beautiful covered porch. WPA rustic-style fieldhouses leave a legacy of craftsmanship and service

The site of the Enumclaw WPA Fieldhouse was developed on land in part donated by Pete Chovak and the White River Lumber Co. in September, 1938. It includes a half-log-clad fieldhouse (1940); picnic shelter (c. 1940); three sets of stone stairs (c. 1940); stone retaining walls (c. 1940); baseball diamond (c.1940); a football field and grandstand (1940); and various mature plantings including two groves of fir trees.
